Controversy over Pimpri Chinchwad Mayor firing in air, he denies claim

Pune Pimpri-Chinchwad Mayor Rahul Jadhav on Wednesday landed in a soup after he allegedly fired two rounds in the air from his brand new revolver. However, he denied the incident as his picture holding the revolver went viral. The incident apparently happened after the 'jal puja' at Pavana dam when the mayor and officials accompanying him were returning to Pimpri-Chinchwad. The mayor apparently fired in the air to celebrate the 'jal puja'. The alleged incident happened at 2.15 pm outside a hotel in Maval area.

"No, no this is not true. I did not fire two rounds in the air. But it's true that I was carrying the revolver. I was trying to clean the revolver when the pictures were taken...", he said. Alleging that there were attempts to defame him, the mayor said, "I have a licence for the revolver and six bullets... If any probe is conducted I can produce them. The photo with revolver which has gone viral is an attempt to defame me.... there was no firing at all."

PCMC Joint City Engineer Makrand Nikam, who was with the mayor, also denied Jadhav fired in the air.

Delhi: Woman inmate alleges rape by head constable on train, FIR filed

New Delhi Delhi Police has registered an FIR of rape against a head constable after a woman, lodged in Tihar Jail, alleged he raped her in a moving train. She alleged the incident took place on August 3, when she was returning to Delhi from West Bengal after attending a court hearing.

DCP (Railways) Dinesh Kumar Gupta said, "Based on her complaint, we've registered an FIR and further investigations are on." Police said two cases of kidnapping were registered in Delhi and West Bengal against the woman. "The woman was taken to West Bengal on August 1 for a court hearing. Five police personnel — two women, two constables and the head constable, who was their in-charge — were present with her. The incident took place as they were returning to Delhi. Around 1.30 am, she claimed she asked them to take her to the washroom, but the women personnel were asleep. She said the head constable offered to take her," a senior officer said. The woman alleged she was in the washroom when the alleged head constable barged inside and raped her. "She said he threatened her not to inform anyone. She returned to Tihar Jail and informed the jail superintendent, who approached Hari Nagar police station. A zero FIR was lodged and a medical examination conducted," an officer said.

Kolkata: Jadavpur University relaxes hostel rules for Kashmiri students

New Delhi Amid a vortex of fear and uncertainty among Kashmiris studying in other parts of the country following the government move to scrap special status to J&K under Article 370, Jadavpur University in Kolkata on Tuesday relaxed hostel rules for students from the state. Keeping in mind the recent political developments, which have triggered anxiety among students from the Valley, the Jadavpur University administration said Kashmiri students would be lodged at hostels inside the campus. About 100 students from Kashmir are presently enrolled in Jadavpur University, one of the premier institutes in Kolkata. The dean of the university said the decision to ease hostel rules was taken at a meeting on Monday evening. "Hostel facilities are given to the students of the university considering their financial condition, distance, home town and other factors. In such times of crisis, Kashmiri students may face financial problems. So, we have decided to allot hostels to them inside the campus," the dean said. This year, many Kashmiri students have taken admission in engineering courses. If they fail to get hostel accommodation, Kashmiri students normally take recourse to PG or mess facilities. Moreover, Kolkata Police has specifically asked the university administration to extend all help to the Kashmiri students. Jadavpur SFI leader Devraj said Kashmiri students were free to contact them in case of any problem. "We have given an open call, they should contact us if there is any problem. We will try to take appropriate measures for their safety," he said. The All India Council of Technical Education (AICTE) has directed all the college principals and coordinators appointed for the Prime Minister's Special Scholarship Scheme (PMSSS) to "take special care" of students hailing from Jammu and Kashmir studying in their college. The Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) has issued an advisory to all States and Union Territories to ensure "peace and public harmony" is not disrupted and residents of Jammu and Kashmir living in other parts of the country are not harmed. Expressing concern for the safety of students and workers from Jammu and Kashmir living in other parts of the country, the advisory said, "It is requested that special care is taken to ensure the safety and security of residents of Jammu and Kashmir, especially students hailing from Jammu and Kashmir, in various parts of the country."
